

Investment Manager Review

In February 2021, the Trust's NAV per share returned -2.9% (GBP) while the NASDAQ Biotechnology Index (NBI) returned -4.0% (GBP). The FTSE All-Share Index returned 2.0% (GBP) and the S&P 500 Index returned 1.0% (GBP). IBT's share price returned -4.7% (GBP).

The main positive contributors to the NAV in the month were Horizon Therapeutics, Chemocentryx and Acceleron. Horizon reported strong 2020 sales, and 2021 guidance was boosted by the impressive launch of their thyroid eye disease treatment, Tepezza. The New England Journal of Medicine published Chemocentryx's positive phase 3 data for their drug avacopan, and Acceleron shares appreciated heading into updated data for their pulmonary arterial hypertension drug, sotatercept.

The main detractors from the NAV in the month were Regeneron, Vertex and Ionis. Regeneron shares were hit as Roche announced positive data for a potential competitor drug to the company's lead marketed drug, Eylea. Vertex reported disappointing Q4 2020 earnings, following failure of their drug to treat AAT deficiency. Ionis / Biogen reported U.S. Spinraza sales, which were lower than analyst expectations.

Outlook

The global rollout of the vaccine bodes well for short to medium term economic recovery.

The new U.S. administration's focus will be on the stimulus package and Covid-19.

Given the healthcare/biotechnology sector's relatively stable and visible earnings, combined with the accelerating pace of innovation, we are optimistic about the biotech sector's mid to long-term performance.
