

Investment Manager Review

In January 2021, the Trust's NAV per share returned -1.1% (GBP) while the NASDAQ Biotechnology Index (NBI) returned 4.7% (GBP). The FTSE All-Share Index returned -2.2% (GBP) and the S&P 500 Index returned -1.2% (GBP). IBT's share price returned -0.1% (GBP).

The main positive contributors to the NAV in the month were Gilead, Alnylam and Biogen. Gilead's share price appreciated on the news that the US Supreme Court rejected Merck & Co Inc's bid to revive a patent dispute over Gilead's hepatitis C treatment. Alnylam announced positive top-line data for Vutisiran in patients with hATTR amyloidosis with polyneuropathy. Finally, news that the FDA's decision on whether to approve Biogen's Alzheimer's drug was delayed increasing hopes that the outcome would be a positive decision.

The main detractors from the NAV in the month were Acadia, Sarepta and PTC Therapeutics. Acadia announced the departure of its Chief Commercial Officer, Michael Yang. Sarepta's share price fell after disappointing results from one of its clinical trials - a gene therapy in Duchenne's muscular dystrophy (DMD) and PTC announced lowered sales guidance for its 2021 DMD franchise.

Outlook

The global rollout of the vaccine bodes well for short to medium term economic recovery.

The new U.S. administration's focus will be on the stimulus package and Covid-19.

Given the healthcare/biotechnology sector's relatively stable and visible earnings, combined with the accelerating pace of innovation, we are optimistic about the biotech sector's mid to long-term performance.
